

State of

Connecticut

By Her Excellency M. Jodi Rell, Governor: an

Official Statement

*W*HEREAS, the Connecticut General Assembly adopted legislation in the 2001 Session that speaks to the importance of international education. Section 10-27(a) of the Connecticut General Statutes reads, "It shall be the policy of the state to encourage its students, teachers, administrators and educational policy makers to participate in international studies, international exchange programs and other activities that advance cultural awareness and promote mutual understanding and respect for the citizens of other countries"; and

*W*HEREAS, according to the American Council on Education, more than 70 percent of Americans believe it is important to learn to speak a foreign language and to learn about world affairs; and

*W*HEREAS, International Education Week was established four years ago as a joint initiative of the U.S. Department of State and the U.S. Department of Education as a way to promote international understanding in schools and institutions, in the United States and abroad; and

*W*HEREAS, International Education Week provides an opportunity to promote and celebrate the benefits of international education and international exchange worldwide, and to encourage policies and programs that prepare Americans for a global environment and attract future leaders from abroad to study in the United States; now

*T*HEREFORE, I, M. Jodi Rell, Governor of the State of Connecticut, do hereby officially proclaim the week of November 13-17, 2006, as in the State of Connecticut.

INTERNATIONAL EDUCATION WEEK
